

Unit 1 Media Technology and Representation

The main purpose of this unit is to enable students to develop their skills in a variety of medium such as film, print, photography, animation, and web page creation. Students also gain an understanding of the relationship between the media, technology and the representations present in media forms.

Students will be required to complete complex projects such as creating digital media and print media content.